ROBERT TAYLOR

Bobby,
Hey, it was real (or unreal) this summer. You really got on my nerves a little!
But you're a good guy - you'll be OK (just clean up that mind)
Stay cool this summer - don't bring in a pool (the rest kinda rings through)
Your a great guy - A little hard to understand at times but stay weird anyway
Luv ya bunches,

Yearbook Staff Honors Four

The members of the yearbook staff are pleased to honor four fine people of our faculty by dedicating this volume of the yearbook to them. Each has contributed to the betterment of this institution in some way and we hope that they will enjoy this book.

Ellie Ucci came from Chicago five years ago, and Westwood lucked out, we were the lucky school to hire her as our school nurse. Ellie doesn't know the meaning of the word "no" . . . she cares for all of the students and staff as though they were members of her own family, and she does it because she really cares. This loving concern is felt by everyone who come in contact with Ellie. She has initiated and provided many health education services for our school, one of the most successful being the Health Fair in the Spring of the year. She contact health service units and persons and brings them in for this worthwhile event, which is attended by a large majority of the students and staff.

The year Westwood opened their doors in 1962, this tall, serious young teacher from Missouri joined the Westwood staff in the Social Studies Department. Paul Wells is truly a dedicated teacher, and he has as his major goal, teaching the subject to his students. Even though some of his students consider him a "tough" teacher, those students interested in learning are grateful and many of them return to express their appreciation after their entrance into college. Mr. Wells has contributed greatly to Westwood, initiating and supervising the Close Up Program which provided trips to Washington D.C. for many of our students; ram-rodding the European tours in the summer, and presently he is the varsity coach for the Girls Basketball Team. He makes up a large part of the backbone of Westwood, and we all love and appreciate him.

Arlene Bateman came to Westwood as a teacher in the fall of 1967. Mrs. Bateman is a master teacher, and presently chairperson of the English Department. This talented lady has been visible on many stages as she has taken part in numerous dramatic and musical productions. She comes from a family who has always appreciated the fine arts; Shepherd Auditorium was named for her father, Rulon T. Shepherd, former Superintendent of Schools. Not the least among her talents, is her real concern for the individual student; this caring concern has been demonstrated to many students throughout the years. Mrs. Bateman stays late many days to work with and counsel her students.

George Tihanyi started his teaching career at Westwood High School in 1968. This tall lanky young man, who was born in Hungary, came to us full of enthusiasm and a desire to teach. He has proven himself as a fine teacher, and his enthusiasm has not diminished . . . he has indeed been a successful teacher for these past fifteen years. He assumed the principalship of summer school and night school for a number of years, and under his supervision, this operation ran like a well oiled machine, he was highly successful in this role. His hobbies are bicycling, and travelling.

School Opening Great

Westwood started off a new year by having their opening assembly with its traditional teasing of the Sophomores. Many students portrayed Sophomores in their typical "lost" way. The assembly was directed by the new 1982-83 Student Body President Russell Riggs.

Many out-going Sophomores decided to run for office. The ones that were elected, are Andy Stewart, President, Monte Ward, Vice President, and Carol Farnsworth as Secretary, each of them promising to lead the Class of '85 to a successful year.

The student Body was aroused by the new Varsity and J.V. Cheerleaders. They led the assembly with many chants and cheers.

The Warrior Band rocked the place with many new songs. Dancing to their songs were Westwood's own Warriorettes.

Cheerleaders, Warriorettes, Boost School Spirit

More than fifty times a year, a group of boys and girls come running on to the stage, football field, or basketball court to raise school spirit for the upcoming games. They are the Warriorettes and cheers.

This summer the Warriorettes and Varsity cheerleaders attended a summer camp at NAU. While there, they received awards such as the spirit stick, most superior trophy, and the school with the most people participating.

Mrs. Sandy Cooper has been in charge of the pom line here at Westwood for the past four years, and this year she has taken on a new task of working with the cheerleaders. We appreciate her hard work and dedication.

Without the help of the pom and cheer squads, this year's activities would not have been as successful as they were.

Fall Activities Get Spirit Moving

As Westwood's 1982-83 School Year began fall activities also got under way. Some of these activities that helped to boost Westwood's spirit included the Soap Bowl and the Hello Dance. Students helped to raise soap for the football players and also had the chance to meet old friends as well as new acquaintances at the Hello Dance that followed the game. Thai-Chewee Week gave students the chance to learn about all of the clubs offered on campus and the chance to become members as well. Thai-Chewee Week was followed by lawn projects which of course was won by the Seniors followed by the Juniors and ending with the sophies.

Adding to some of these fall activities was the blood drive. The Arizona Blood Service was invited by the Student Council and received more than 70 pints of blood from students on campus.

Game Hi Lites Homecoming Activities

Homecoming 1983 was filled with much excitement and a lot of laughter. In the week preceding the game, which Westwood was victorious, the excitement mounted with the return of old friends and who was to become our new Homecoming Royalty.

This year's Homecoming Assembly was filled with laughter as alumni displayed some of their hidden talents. Darin Huffaker and Eric Engstrom emceed the assembly with their unusual antics.

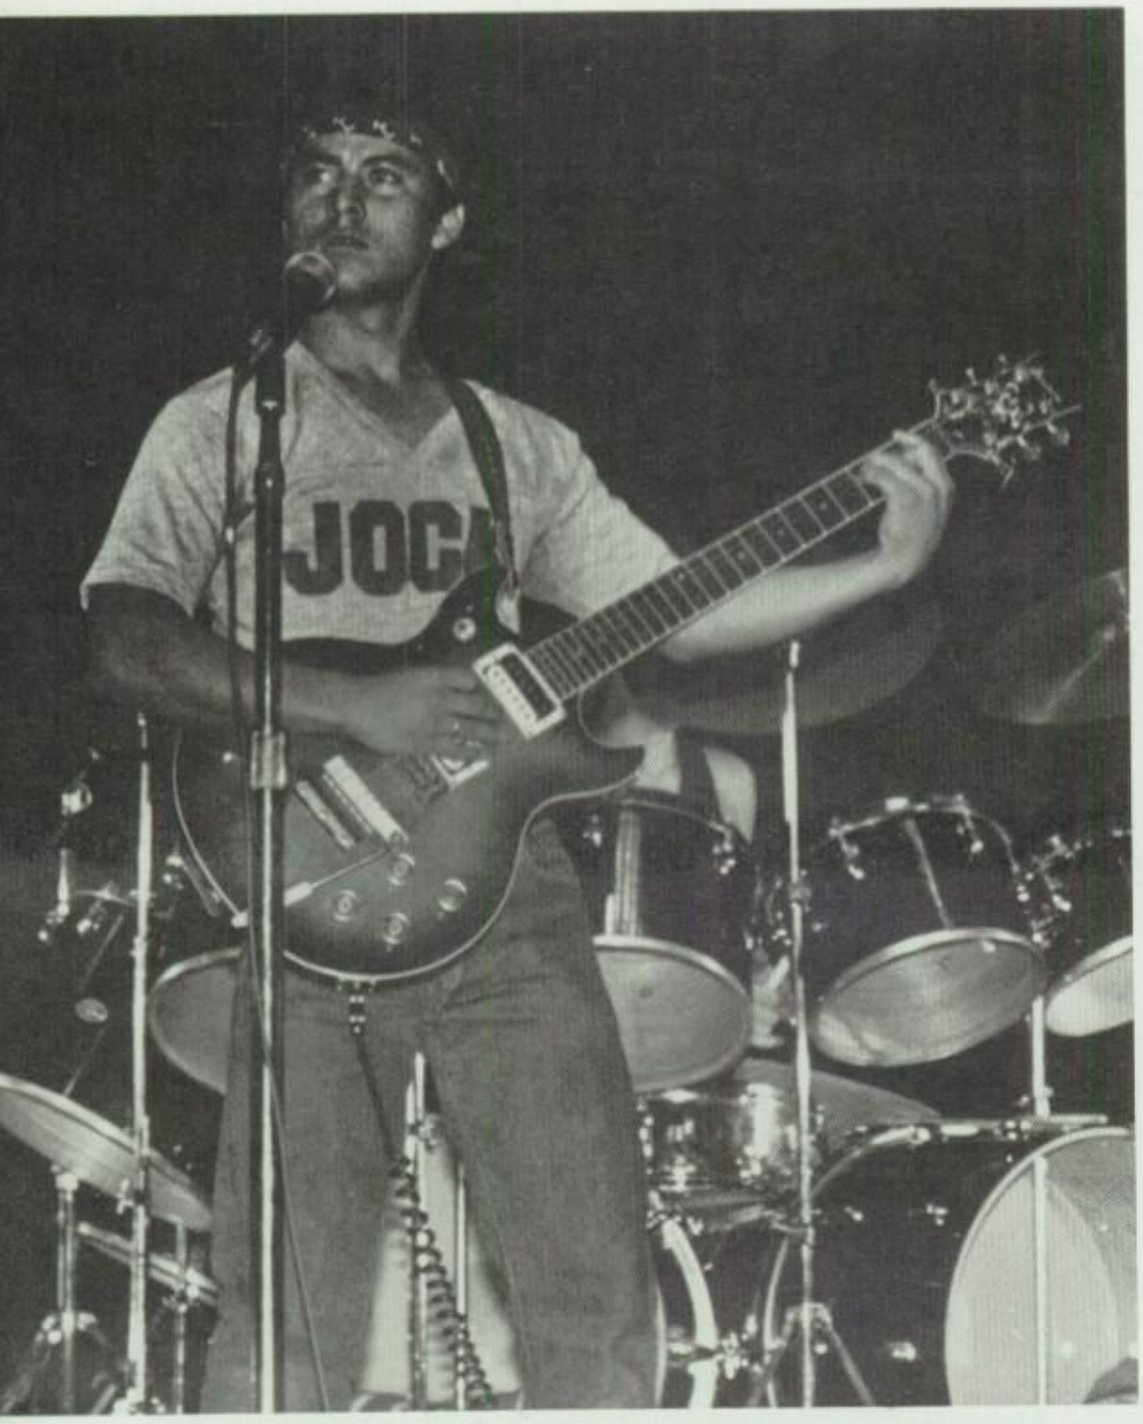
The acts ranged from a solo by Robert Fowler to a bopping 50's melody by the Pointless Sisters. Westwood also saw the return of the famous Flying Zucchini Brothers.

The Warriors played a heart-stopping football game as they brought home a victory in the last few seconds of the game. But before that the, mighty Warrior Marching Band marched on the field to proudly display their long awaited uniforms.

The crowd then waited for the crowning of the 1983 Homecoming King and Queen. Christine Ziobrowski and Ronnie Wehe were given this honor.

The dance this year was held on the Saturday following the game. It was held in the Girl's Gym and was considered to be a hugh success by all that attended.

Above: Homecoming royalty includes Mike Akins, Jeanne Garbell, Ritchie McKay, Ruth Ann Farnsworth, Don Pagan, Suzie Mast, Dan Chaffman and April Valenzuela. Top: Band members are truly cheerful not only because Westwood won its first game but also because the band uniforms finally arrived.



Curtain Time-1982 Provided Much Talent

Curtain Time 1982- It was a very good year! Yes, the Westwood tradition for putting on fine assembly performances was upheld once again and the audience was overwhelmed with the remarkable array of talent offered. Everything from mellow music to humorous comical acts were enjoyed by all at the annual assembly.

Many musical acts were on the program for the presentation. From the first scintillating act when Honor Choir took the stage, the scene was set for a high caliber performance. Showing their virtuous talent for the student body was the highly acclaimed Westwood Jazz Band. The members of the Dance Production performed a uniquely choreographed dance to the song "You Should Hear How She Talks About You." Other performances such as a rock band went all out on the song "Turn Me Loose" which really was a definite crowd-pleaser. On the more relaxing aspect of the show, the brother and sister team of Dale and Suzette Durfee sang a duet which got to the hearts of many. Another musical treat was given by Vicki Whimer as she performed for the attentive crowd.

A hilarious rendition of sophomores on a date was portrayed by Dirk Gardner and Chris Funk.

All in all, it proved to be a tremendous success.

"Barefoot In The Park" Receives Rave Reviews

"Barefoot in the Park" by Neil Simon, was performed as Westwood's 1981-83 fall play. It concentrated on the newly married couple Paul and Corie Bratter. These roles were wonderfully performed by James Urbina and Kelly Rhodes, and shows the problems they encountered in their big move to a small apartment in New York.

Although the cast was small, with only six members, it contained much talent and provided many laughs. Along with James and Kelly the rest of the cast consisted of Wayne Carroll, who portrayed a weird retired chef Victor Velasco, Jerry Winters, a zany telephone man, Steve Taylor, a very exhausted delivery man and Robin Matlock, the very down to earth no frills mother of Corie.

After many weeks of hard practice, the play was performed in Shepherd Auditorium on November 18 & 19 and was considered to be very humorous and a big hit by the many supporters who attended.

There's Room For Everyone; A Success

Using drama, dance, and music, the Senior Class performed a heartwarming characterization of a "geek" living his high school years. Fantasies played a major role in the "geek's" life, but the force of reality always reminded himself of what he was. With Dirk Gardner as the "geek" and Tony Poleo as his best friend, this duo acted their roles realistically. It took a character like John Miller, played by Joe Udall, to help Howard, Lila (Kelly Rhoades), and Reuben realize that they were just as important as anyone else. Even with the outside pressure from Marge (Suzi Mast) and "the group" Howard and Rueben still succeeded in being themselves, even though they were looked upon as abnormal.

All in all, we would like to thank Chris Funk and Wayne Carroll for their direction and for the lesson that they taught everyone here at Westwood High. There IS room for everyone!

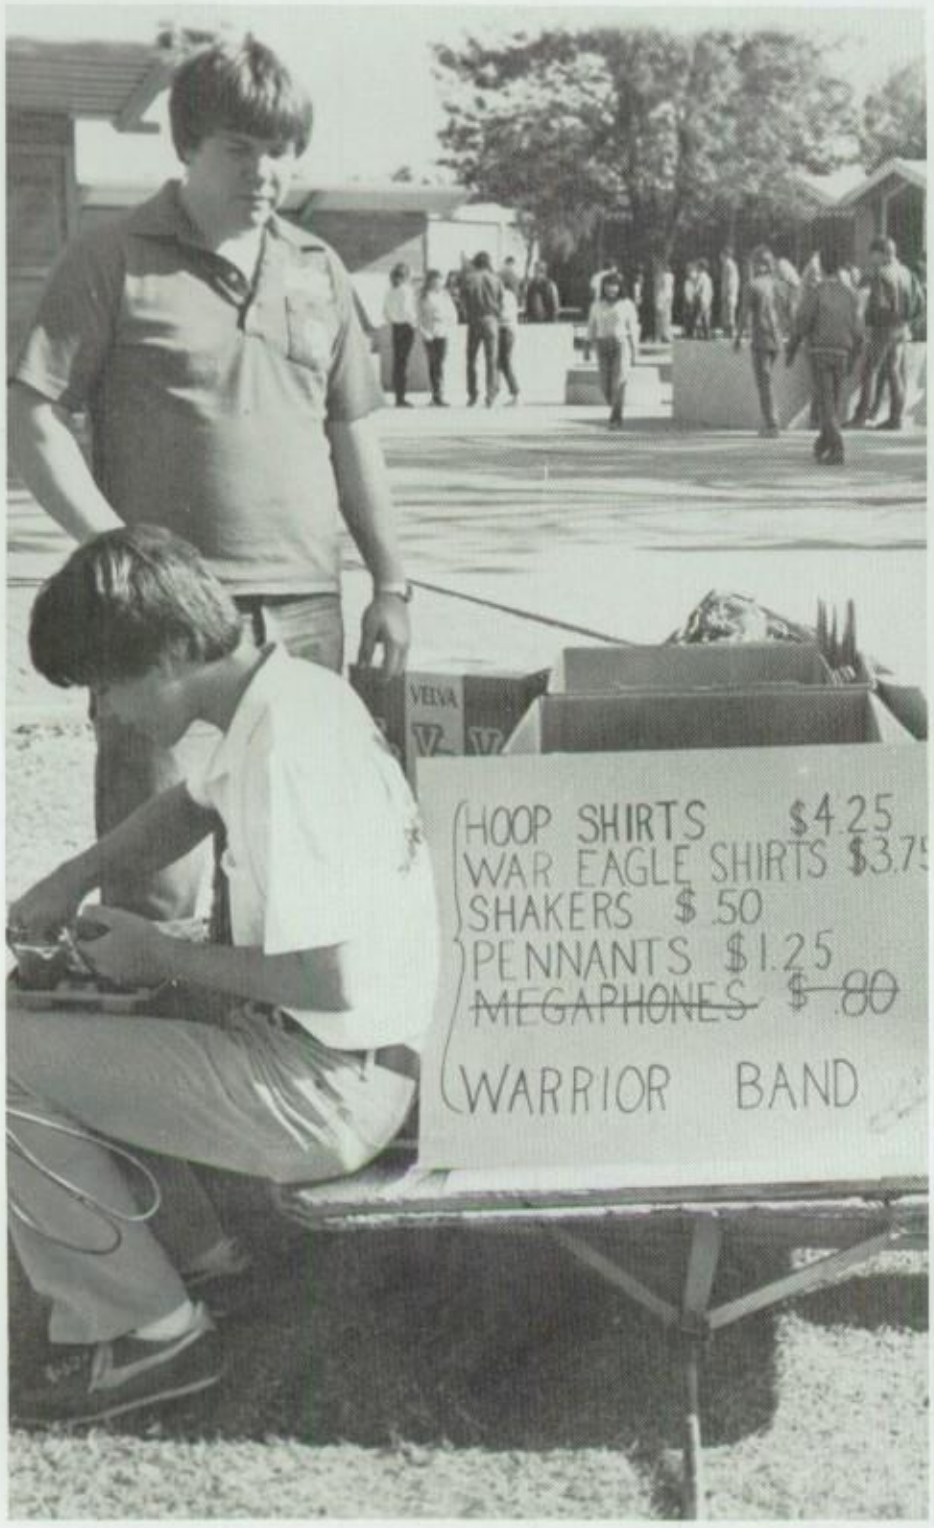
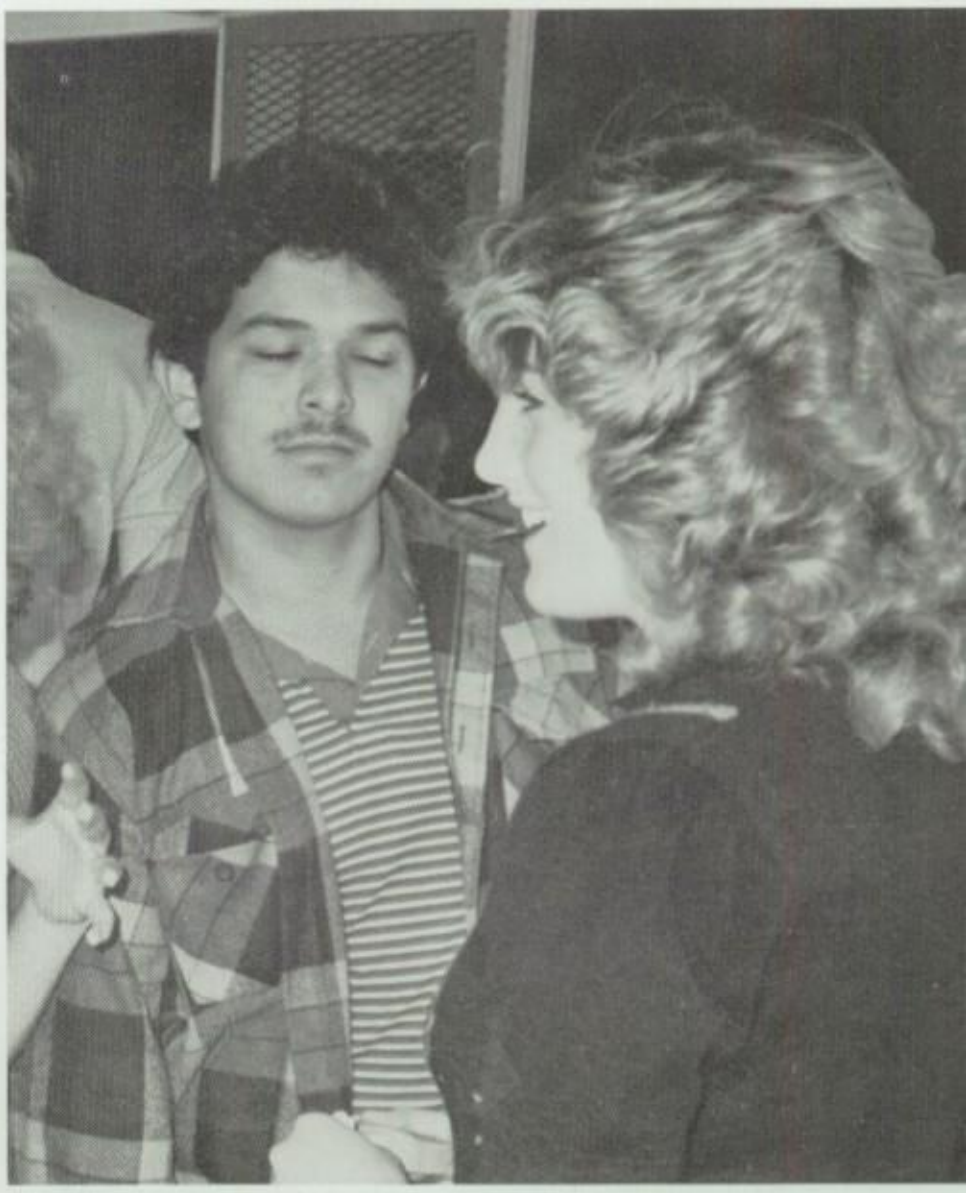
Not all students eat out at that beautiful time we know as lunch hour. Many Westwood students prefer to remain on our lovely campus to spend some time studying, spending time with their friends, or just plain sitting around by themselves. The library is a very popular place at lunch, and all the picnic tables are usually filled between 11:07 and 11:50. The ala carte lines usually stretched out onto the sidewalk, and a seat in the cafeteria was a hard thing to find. So while most students were inhabiting Crazy Sub or other eating establishments many students had just as much fun here at school.





Above: The selling of several different spirit items was a common pastime at lunch. Here two Warrior band members palm off some spirit shirts. Top Right: Even while in the presence of sexy sophomore Stephanie Tucker, Tommy Hernandez can not help but dream about the lunch he is about to receive. Juniors Entertain School With Class Production

This year's junior class play was entitled "The Winning Circle".

The play revolved around the life of an all-American guy who was a very dedicated and accomplished swimmer. He also held several positions in student council throughout his three years in high school. As it turns out, a great conflict occured between his swimming desires and his student council commitments. He was faced with an important decision. The choice he made was not exactly the one he desired, but instead was the one he knew he should make.

The lead roles for the "Winning Circle" were Ted, played by Clint Brown, and Sandra, Ted's girlfriend, portrayed by Valerie Kahler. A lot of hard work and dedication went into this year's production and all of the juniors who participated in the "Winning Circle" should be commended.

This years varsity football team knew it would be a tough year, but not that tough! The Warriors first five games were with top ten teams, and they knew that they had their work cut out for them. The team finished with an overall record of 3-7, but that is misleading. Every time the Warriors took the field their opponents knew they were in for a battle. The varsity gridders practiced hard, and they played as a team. Despite the losing record, they put in several great performances. The best was their victory over Coronado in the final game of the season. The Dons were ranked 10th in the state, and it would have been easy for the Warriors to roll over and die, but they didn't! They worked extra hard in the last week of practice, and they defeated the Dons in every aspect of the game. The team was a tough opponent for anyone, and they should be congratulated.

JV Without League Loss
Junior Blues Play Hard

This years J.V. football season was a successful one! The rookie Warriors finished with an overall record of 5-3, but the best part was their record in league play. They ended the season 4-0 in the B league. The J.V.'s, coached by coaches Jolly and Hillicker, were a well disciplined team that practiced hard. Their dedication was the key to their success. They were in very good condition, and often times that was how they defeated their opponents. This years team was loaded with potential, and we hope to see them return as Varsity players next season.

This years Junior team went without a win this year, but that does not tell the whole story. The "blues" lost several close games that could have gone either way. They worked hard on the practice field, as hard as any other Westwood team. The team showed a lot of character throughout the season. They never lost their intensity, they played everyone tough.

This years team worked hard, and they also deserve congratulations. We also hope to see them return as Varsity Warriors.

Lady Swimmers Splash To An 8-2 Season

Under the direction of a new coach, Mr. John Donovan, the girls' swim team splashed through a winning duel meet season of 8-2. This years team was blessed with both depth and skill. Although the first few workouts were a bit shaky, they had the strength and spirit to carry out a winning season.

This years senior swimmers, Heidi Kranich, Julie Clark, Cheri Evans, and Traci Baldwin, along with junior Karen Johns and freshman, Kristin McQuitty successfully provided the leadership and skill necessary to lead the girls this far.

Although the swimmers had a great season, they couldn't have made it without the divers. Consisting of Leslie Allen, Karen Mason, Cherlene Eaves, Kristin Randall and Michelle Harris, the divers put in long hours each day. These long hours paid off for the divers by placing Leslie IIth in state and Karen 12th.

Along with Coach Donovan was the boys' coach, Mr. Craig Cummins. Each of the coaches contributed their time and teaching skills to help each swimmer individually. The girls also had another advantage which was Mrs. Kathy Bennion who swam for Westwood a few years ago. Kathy helped teach the team better techniques in their strokes and very much stressed her interest in long grueling workouts.

The diving coach, Mrs. Betty Pipes, also contributed her time and effort for the divers. She helped the divers in reaching their goals by sharing her skill and knowledge diving. Coach Pipes expects next years team to be as good as this years and even better since most of the divers were only juniors.

Warriors Stand Strong In Archery And Badminton

This years Badminton team proved to be one of enthusiasm. Although the team didn't have one of its better years, they did have the spirit to overcome their losses. One of the reasons for their losses was the inexperience of the players. This year there was only one returning varsity player and one returning JV player. Coach Yolie Munoz was satisfied with the team considering the type of experience they had.

Again this year the girls Archery team was a tough one. Despite the loss of stolen equipment and uniforms, the girls were aiming for victories. This year the team had four returnees. Coach Mounts was pleased to see the quality of the girls shooting ability.

Enthusiasm Prevails

Coached by Cindy Demerast, this years volleyball team was full of skill and enthusiasm. This years top seniors, Linda Anderson, Juanita Creech, Ruth Ann Farnsworth, Melany Hutcheson, Amy Light, and Lorelei Nordstrom carried the team out to a 6-6 season. Setter, Juanita Creech and spiker, Ruth Ann Farnsworth aided the team with a strong offense.

Coach Demerast is proud of the teams' ability to work together.

J.V.'s coach, Sue Cottle was happy with the progress of the team. Lead by Diane Mullin's 100 percent serving record and Kris Horneman's hitting, the team had an outstanding year.

Girls Cross Country Strides To Victory

As the school year started so did the sports. One sport that got well underway was the Girls Cross Country team. The team consisting of some sixteen runners, under the excellent coaching of Barb Anderes, after long grueling practices, excelled with a fifteen win-one loss record. In divisionals the team placed second with runners Kim Prince placing second, Kelly Miller fourth, and Jeanette Davidson thirteenth. At the Prescott Invitational they placed tenth. The top runners for the 1982-83 school year were, J.V. runners, Kelly Miller a freshman from Carson Junior High, Jeanette Davidson, Leste Lavender, Kristi Lavender, and Polli Johnston. The top runners for the varsity team were, seniors Juli Noble and Ruth Randall.

All in all the girls had a very successful season, winning the city meet and placing seventh in the state meet. Coach Anderes commented that this was the most successful season in the three years that she has been coaching Girls Cross Country here at Westwood. "The girls are outstanding individuals; as well as athletes. Working with these young ladies makes coaching the team extremely enjoyable! With so many outstanding young ladies coming back next year, we will definitely be a contender for the state title .... and to me, that's exciting!" Westwood is extremely proud of the girls Cross Country team, and wishes them the best of luck next year in their attempt for the state title. Congratulations.

Swingin' Warriors Putt Their Way To The Top

Under the excellent coaching of Erv Reid and Gail Christensen, the Boys and Girls golf team ended their season on a good note. The girls finished up their season with a 7 win 2 loss record, while the boys finished up with a 5 win 7 loss record.

The girls team was made up of only seven. The members of the team included Louise Hector, a senior foreign exchange student from Sweden, the three returning players, Seniors, Tina Joiner and Susan Stafford, and Junior Liz Stetson. There were also three new additions to the team, including Susan Dornbier, Dina Williams, and Heather Dunstan.

In the state tournament held at Camelback Inn, the girls placed third over the other eleven participating schools. Louise Hector finished with an outstanding fourth place overall.

Coach Christensen commented that she was very pleased with the girls' performance and that they all contributed a great deal.

The boys team consisted of thirteen senior, junior, and sophomore boys. Unfortunately, due to the tough competition in divisionals, the boys were not able to compete in the state tournament.

Cross Country Excels
Hard Work Pays Off

Hard work, diligence, and dedication is what led the boys cross country teams to an excellent season. The members of the team worked extremely hard this year and this hard work seemed to pay off. The boys struggled through nearly 1000 miles, running an average of 62 miles per week, four each morning and eight to ten each afternoon.

The varsity team ended with a 13-3 record, while the junior varsity completed their season with an amazing 16-0 record. Led by varsity runners Kelland Coleman and Dany Campbell, the Warriors brought home a first place trophy, beating out 20 other teams in the Prescott Invitational.

In the city meet, the varsity team placed second, while the junior varsity team snatched the first place position. And in the state meet held on Nov. 17, 1982, the teams placed eighth.

Coach Mike Gray commented that out of his nine years of coaching, this was definitely the most enjoyable one, and that he is already looking forward to an excellent season next year.

Warriors Post 8-2; Best Dual Meet Season Ever

The 1982-83 wrestling season saw varsity coach, Dave Murphy, inspiring the team to victories. Improving, interests, and pride concluded the season record to 8-2.

The team was composed of a dedicated group of individuals. Chip Park lead the Warriors by returning home with his 2nd State Champion title, and his own season record of 26-0. Russ Oliver, 14-2, and Farron Webster, 16-3-2, were also strong leaders for the Warriors. Other valuable contributions to the team were Gary Burley, Steve Heilman, Phil Jensen, and Don Pagan. Next year, the returning varsity members who will continue the Warrior pride are Mickey Kanoy, Marcus Mann, and Chris Haddad.

Finishing 1st overall in the McClintock Tournament, 3rd in the Mesa Tournament, 4th in Divisionals, and 7th in State was the Westwood Wrestling Team, which represented our school magnificently. Coach Murphy felt that he team did outstanding and is looking forward to a successful season in 1984.

Now Everybody Knows, Warrior Hoop Is Awesome

The biggest thing to hit campus this year was Warrior Hoop! Fans crowded into the gym time after time to watch the team consistently defeat their opponents. The team finished the year with an outstanding 22-4 record, and the championship at the Peaks Basketball Classic in Flagstaff. The team made it to the state playoffs, but they suffered a heartbreaking loss at the hands of Pueblo High School, when a Pueblo player hit a shot at the buzzer to defeat the Warriors. The team was the number one offensive team in the state, averaging almost 77 points a game. The brightest spot on the team was Ron Wehe. Ron lead the state in scoring, averaging nearly 27 points a game. Everyone made an outstanding contribution. There wasn't one person who was not a factor in the great success that the Warriors had. The Warriors also had another factor that played a part in their success. New assistant coach Rick McConnell added a lot of knowledge and talent to the Warrior coaching staff. Now we look to next year, but it will be hard to top 1982-83 Westwood Varsity Hoop.

Renovated Team Leads To Bright Hopes In Future

This years Varsity softball team was best described as a few experienced players mixed with a lot of inexperienced ones. Only two returning varsity players could befound on the diamond, Ingrid McTaggart, and Vicki Rekkas. Taking this into consideration, the team had an extremely successful season, including going to divisionals. Other contributing seniors were Becky Brown, Juanita Creech, and Tina Joiner. Coach Al Thomas is looking forward to next year because he'll have several returning players, such as Cindy Campos, Sandra Hester, and Rachel Ortiz. Rosanne Geer, an excellent pitcher, will also be returning. With all this in mind, next year will be bright.

This years J.V. Softball team was coached by none other than the football buff himself, Mr. Jim Jones. Coach Jones really enjoyed working with the girls and was very satisfied with the effort they displayed. It took him a while to get the roster in order, but after he did, the season was very successful.

Soccer Consistent Team Works Hard

This year's soccer season sure was a rebuilding one for the Westwood team. The guys worked extremely hard on rebuilding their defense and their offense which is made up mostly of sophomores and juniors. The team had a new goal keeper, sophomore Mike Pickard who was one of many dedicated players on this year's roster. Some of the other players were seniors Adrian Panther and Stan Telford, and junior David Sugar. Each and every one of these fine athletes put in about two and a half hours of practice each day. With these strong returning players next year, Coach Cole is looking forward to next soccer season very much.

Boys' Track Team Shines Once Again

This years track team turned our to be another great one, as is the tradition here at Westwood High. This years team had twenty-one returning Seniors from last years team which includes Randy Turk, Mike Cook, Kellend Coleman, Shawn Jeffs, and the Tucker boys, which were all great assets last year. Also returning as Juniors this were greats like Van Wilson, David Shaw, Arlon Smith, Darren Shumway, and Kory King. With the help of Sophomores John Larson, Andy Stewart, Doug Hobbs, and Rusty Lesueur, the track team had very little trouble winning their meets this year. Coachs Gray, Sawyer, and new comer, Coach Hilliker, contributed much to make these fine tracksters perform so well.

Our long distance runners were some of the best in the state this year because they ran between six and eight miles a day since the begining of the year. Our relay team which had two returners from last years championship team had very little continuing to do the same this year.

All of the team members from shot put to high jumpers to cross-country runners improved immensely this year and really put team work together and performed oustandingly.

Warrior Tracksters Tackle Tough Competition: Seniors Show Strength

Full of fun and excitement well describes this years track team. Before their season, the girls were getting into shape by doing various exercises; such as, aerobics and weight training. Although the team was smaller than usual, they didn't lack the talent. Each day the girls started their workouts, led by the energetic seniors, during sixth hour and ended around 5:00 p.m. Mrs. Sturdevant was satisfied with each girls dedication.

After their running workouts, the girls would then retreat to the weight room. On these certain days, they would do a specific weight training routine.

The first meet of the season was on March 2, against Corona del Sol. To qualify for these meets, the girls would have an inter-squad meet to compete for the fastest times.

Although Mrs. Sturdevant was sad to see this season come to an end, she is excited for next year to begin.

Boys Tennis Volley To A Successful Season!

From January 17 to April 16 the boys Westwood Warrior tennis team was lead by the coaching of Mr. Livingston to a successful season. Being a head coach for four years at East High and teaching at clinics in various states, Livingston added his knowledge to the winning team. Livingston stressed physical fitness, sportsmanship attitude, and sound stroke reproduction to form a top notch team.

The team consisted of 18 members, 6 varsity and 12 junior varsity. Good depth and talented individuals were two of the teams stronger aspects. The top two returning seniors, John Kramer and Craig Broderick, proved to do well in dual and tournament play. Bringing in the rest of the points for varsity were Roger Clark, Erik Leverson, David Hancock, and Jim Waddell. The junior varsity team was also strong and kept up their consistency throughout the season.

Divisionals were held April 21 and 22. The state competition was held April 29 and 30. The Westwood Boys Tennis Team showed others their true Warrior pride!

Female Netters Improve Freshmen Provide Depth

This years Girls Tennis Team was young but experienced. Kristen Allred and Cari Graves were returning varsity players, that led the way with their experience and leadership. However, two outstanding Freshmen, Mellissa Tafoya, and Kirsten Woelkers added much needed strength and depth, while Karen Johns and Kieu-Mai Nguyen rounded out the team contributing many victories. In addition to the Varsity team; a young, hard working and talented group of J.V. players, proved to be the formula for a successful season.

All in all, the team looked and showed that they were "Awesome" to all who opposed them.

To make the team, each girl had to show what they were made of, not only as a player but, as a teammate. The practices started January 17th, with constant rallying and playing matches. Unknown to the new-comers on the team, these practices were just the beginning of a long and hard season.

The matches started at 3:30 in the afternoon. Not many spectators came, except for a few parents, and some appearances by Mr. Joyce. Even though not many people went to the matches, the girls kept their spirit up and pulled through to have a great season.

Warrior Baseball As American As Apple Pie

Base-ay-ball been berry berry gooot to us! Baseball, hot dogs, and apple pie. Where would we be without them? Contributing to the tradition, Westwood has one terrific baseball team. Learning from the excellent ability of Coach Downing and Coach Haggerty, the 1983 Boys' Varsity Baseball team got off to a swinging start. Returning players were pitchers: Eric Leiber, Brent Maldonado, and Danny Chaffman; first baseman, Jerry Isley; Tom Fergason, Troy Beckert, Ron Musgraves and Greg Williams.

A very intense practice session was on the agenda each day for the team. Every day after school, they practiced for about three hours. Saturday sessions were a weekly part o training also.

The teams' first game was held on March against Chaparra However, their toughest competitior was the game agains Kofa Yuma. With the talented team Westwood is Lucky t have, there is always room for pride, no matter what th outcome is.

Coach McConnel did a fine job with the J.V. baseball tean this year. If all the J.V. players return next year, the '84 tean should be just as successful as out 1983 Varsity team.

Varsity Scores High; J.V.'s Grow Strong

Girls' basketball - 1983- it was a very good year. With the like of returnees Juanita Creech and Sue Hamblin leading th pack, the fight for the ball under the basket was always keen Both of these girls proved to be very tough competitors an the opposing teams know that they had met their matc when ever these young ladies came onto the court. Susa Dornbier really took over the duties of key ball handler an guard. Often she streaked down the floor before the opposi tion realized that a basket was soon to be made. Tina Joine proved that experience counts. Tina was an effective inside player and was a great rebounder. Michelle Baptisto, a for ward, was one of the teams better rebounders and scorers

The j.v. team was an all sophomore group and they had t work for every victory. Coaches Cottle and Wells were ver pleased with the girls on both teams and felt that they wi prove to be a strong nucleus for good future Westwoo teams.

Long practice sessions were the mainstay of the basketba teams, inasmuch as both coaches felt that conditioning wa the key to winning ballgames.

Wet Warriors Swim And Dive To A Successful Season

Through hard work, determination, and dedication, the members of the Warrior swimming and diving team took Westwood straight to the top.

The team under the instruction of Coach Craig Cummins consisted of some 36 freshmen, sophomores, junior and senior boys. These boys dedicated themselves to practicing each afternoon to prepare for upcoming meets. And this dedication seemed to pay off. The Warriors took first place in the Coronado Relays, as well as becoming division champions for the 3rd straight year in a row. Seniors, Dale Draeger, Tony Poleo, Dale Durfee, and Sophomore Kent Nicholas led the Westwood team in becoming state runner-up, also for the 3rd year in a row. Several of the swimmers took first place in many of the events during the state meet.

Congratulations to all of the swimmers and divers for a successful 9-1 season.

Girls Tumble To A Winning Season

Running, jumping, and leaping, are just some of the sights tha the casual visitor can experience when he or she enters the girl's gym during a gymnastics meet. Come early March the drab old building takes on a new glow when some sixteen young ladies take to the trampoline, the horse, and the high bars.

This year was no exception when new coach Laura Jackson was greeted by eager and talented ladies who were ready to go up against any competition.

Outstanding gymnasts returning from last year were, Sharon Green, Karen Mason, Debbie Thomas, and Julie Sabin. These girls were great assets to the team by receiving high marks during their routines. The fine season was brought about by long hours of practice and hard work. Former members of the boy's gymnastic's team Matt Guinn and Mike Marble helped out the girls during many long practices. The team had no seniors competing this year, so if everyone returns next year, the season should turn out to be an even better one.

A reason for people to meet

To share common interests and abilities.

Through deadlines and tense moments,

Fund raising and just hard work,

Each presence is needed

And a sense of belonging is established

While pulling together as a team.

The pressure subsides,

Now its time to relax

And enjoy the companionship

Of this friendly environment. Why?

Because that's America!

Westwood Student Council Rules Remarkably

Helping! That was on the hearts of Student Council for the year "82-83". And helping is just what they did. They served the community by organizing a canned food drive to benefit the less fortunate around the holidays. Council also worked with the Red Cross on a blood drive where they contributed approximately 80 pints for this worthy cause. But Student Council had its fun moments too. They organized Spirit days such as "punk" day, "stomp 'em" day, and "cover the Hares" day that gave students a feeling of involvement while also supporting the athletic teams.

With such devotion coming from the students, council inturn honored some of the students. This came about by honoring the students and athletes of the month. Officers for this year were Russell Riggs, Student Body President, Susan Shill, Student Body Vice-President, Francie Heywood, Secretary, and Ronnie Wehe, Treasurer. With the aid of Mr. Stehr, This year's Student Council worked to represent the student body fairly.

Hikers Climb To Top

This years hiking and biking club participated in some pretty adventurous hikes. Sponsored by the multi talented and experienced hiker himself, Mr. Jeff Lewis, the club members all agree that Mr. Lewis is a friend as well as a chaperon. This is his third year as sponsor of this fearless club.

Sycamore Canyon, Sunrise Ski Resort, and Havasupai are only a few of the trips that the club endeavored to participate in. Each year it seems as if the trips become more and more enjoyable. Who know what's in store for next year?

Dancers Perform With Artistry And Grace

"Stand up straight, point your toes, hold those stomaches in, and SMILE!" are words the enthusiastic members of dance production must have heard several thousand times this past year. These talented girls leaped into action in the fall by dancing brilliantly for the Curtain Time variety show. Dance production provided entertainment for various community activities as well as performing at the State fair, in several festivals, and in assemblies.

Membership in dance production is attained by audition only. Creativity is one of the many skills required from the chosen girls as they often choreographed their own dances. Their original interpretation of Alice in Wonderland was excellent. The group went on the road with this number, touring numerous elementary schools.

Mrs. Zarkou, Westwood's dance instructor, worked with dance production and also sponsored dance club. The members of this club consisted mainly of the students enrolled in dance classes. However, dance club welcomes participation from anyone interested!

Art Club Illustrates Talents In Various Ways

One of the most noticeable clubs here at Westwood was the Art Club. Keeping up its tradition of being visually recognized, the club's many talented members showed their artistic abilities through the silk screening of T-shirts and the decoration of walls with murals.

Major projects this year included the painting of murals in the boy's wrestling room and at A Child's Garden, a nearby day care center. The mural was painted to raise money for the Art Club's scholarship fund, which is awarded each year to one of Westwood's most promising artists.

Besides such cultural activities as a tour of several Scottsdale art galleries, the club also did its share of partying, holding a barbeque and a Christmas party.

The club drew a great deal of support from its sponsor, Mr. Laney. Assisting the students in their various projects, Mr. Laney was at hand to contribute his knowledge in the artistical area as well as his genuine enthusiasm for the club's projects. All in all, the club had a very successful year.

Clubs Enthusiastic

Under the directorship of Mrs. Eleanor Ucci and Debbie O'Rourke, the Health Careers Club completed a very successful year. The club's objective was to give students a chance to learn about health careers and improve over-all health motivation.

The enthusiastic group consisted of students who had several reasons for joining the club. Obviously, some wanted to be doctors, some nurses, and some had chosen just to become more aware of themselves anatomically and perserving their health.

Several field trips were taken during the course of the year. A first-hand observation was done at institutions such as pharmacuetical companies and the county morgue. Guest speakers were also arranged to lecture to the club.

One of the newer clubs this year was the tutoring club. Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Ann Dillon the club achieved many of their goals. They helped students in trouble classes, while teaching Cambodian students how to improve their English. The tutoring room was more than a classroom, it was a "hangout" and a place where a student could be among friends.

Westwood Choirs Astound Audiences

A group of skilled, creative, and talented juniors and seniors made up Westwood's Concert Choir. There were approximately sixty-four students in all who made up the largest choir at Westwood. For the past year, every one of these students has participated and practiced in class every day in order to make their choir excel above all others, and this they did.

The Concert Choir is well known for the traditional Canticle in Carols, an excellent Christmas performance enjoyed immensely by all those watching. They performed other concerts throughtout the year including Spring Sing and school assemblies, as well as going to other schools to perform. At graduation they joined with the rest of Westwood's choirs to sing in the graduation ceremonies.

Once again Honor Choir performed superbly. To be a part of the 39 member choir one would have had to audition before Mr. Harris, the Honor Choir teacher. This audition required a solo, sight reading, and an ensemble.

The Honor Choir performed between forty and fifty performances for throughout the year. The musical styles included such works as classical, Baroque, and Renaissance, to soft romantic songs, as well as pop and jazz.

Great Jazz Band Jives; Symphony Sounds Superb

In the field of music, Westwood has always been deep in tradition. The musicians in Symphonic Band have once again maintained this tradition of excellence. Of the members in this band many have chose to perform with the much more recognized Warrior Marching Band. While the marching band performed popular and traditional songs, the Symphonic Band played more classical material.

Jazz Band, on the other hand, played with instruments that brought out a New Orleans style tone. Such instruments include saxophones, trumpets, and trombones. Among the wide selections that this band featured were many jazz numbers along with a number of todays most popular songs. The students that made up this band appeared at festivals, concerts, civic events, and regional competitions which kept this group on constant tour. Many of these appearances featured soloist playing and small group ensembles. Although this was the smallest of the concert bands, it made up in talent for what it lost in lack of numbers.

Early Practice Pays Off

The 1982-83 Warrior Marching Band was practicing two weeks before school even started this year. They practiced two and a half hours in the morning and in the evening to prepare themselves for the opening game, which was held at Mountain View High School. This year the band director, Mr. Bob Cunningham, chose Diana Kiesecker as his drum majorette. She was the first female to lead the Warrior Band under Mr. Cunningham.

The 121 members, 17 Warriorettes, and 3 majorettes played at pep assemblies, some basketball games, and all football games. The band supplied their own mascot in the likes of Tuba-Man, alias Joe Udall. He showed up at football games to bring the crowd into a frenzy.

The band also performed at many civic events. Along with formal concerts, they played at The Veterans Parade, The Mesa Day Parade, and at ASU Band Day.

The Warrior Concert Band also had an exceptional year. They had many formal concerts through out the year, including their fantastic Christmas show. The Concert Band received a superior rating at the Regional District Festival enabling them to attend The Mountain States Festival.

Showcase In Regionals; Orchestra Plays At Fair

Once again, the seventy members of Westwood's Symphony Orchestra demonstrated their fine capabilities during the school year.

To be a member of the symphony, one must audition and then be selected. Mr. Kim Thompson has lead the group to be one of the finest in the state. They have, as in past years, dominated both the regional and state competitionals. They performed in Carlsbad, New Mexico at the Western Regionals Festival. In November, the orchestra played several times at the Arizona State Fair. They also played several times at the Mesa Ampitheater.

Symphony Orchestra plays a wide variety of music. They play pop, classical, Christmas, etc. At Christmas time they were very busy with concerts. The first concert came only one week after they had gotten their music.

The orchestra plays the same level of music that professional orchestras play, and they have done a very good job of representing Westwood. We hope all their years are as good as this one.

Elegant Orchestras

Westwood's concert orchestra maintained its tradition of superiority to other schools once again. The orchestra was formed only a year ago and is now under the direction of Mr. Tim Thompson. By performing for several different audiences and in different competitions, it exhibited a definite musical talent.

The group was given more opportunity for traveling than in the past year. They attended the Northern Arizona Tour which concluded with a concert at Northern Arizona University. It proved to be an especially enlightening trip for all who participated. The group competed in the regional competition in which they gave a particularly fine performance. Exchange concerts were also on this year's agenda. They performed with Gilbert High School and Chandler High School.

In addition to performing for the general public with their fine capabilities, the concert orchestra played for the student body on several occasions. Their talent is always appreciated.

National Honor, Model U.N. Achieve Great Heights

National Honor Society is a service organization that participates in many activities throughout the year. Some of these activities and service projects include such things as visiting Parkway School where they entertain and give holiday parties. A Christmas tree was given to a nursing home. Many crafts and decorations were made by the members of N.H.S.

Members of this club were evaluated on character, scholarship, leadership, and service. A grade point average of 1.5 was required to belong and most emphasis was placed on scholarship. N.H.S. was and is an organization to be proud of.

Over 2000 top notch students met February 3 and 4 at the University of Arizona for a conference known as Model United Nations. Seven of these High School juniors and seniors were from Westwood. They were sponsored by Mr. Dick Young.

The objective of Model UN was for students to act as the United Nations in New York. There were approximately 60 high schools participating in this event, but Westwood was privileged to represent the United States. Each nation researched and studied the current problems facing our world today. It was a great learning experience for all who were in attendance.

The Show Must Go On!

The show must go on; but not without our beloved Stage Crew! Each curtain that fell, light that went on, or music that was played had to be coordinated by this crew led by Rick Poulin. Stage Crew was in charge of props, lights, and microphones for every performance that went on Westwood's stage. The wrong flick of a switch, or a curtain pulled, would have really messed things up for performers.

The newly installed sound system really put our stage crew on a professional level so that the audience was able to enjoy all performances.

"Busy", described Masque and Dagger this year. Boundless were there energies as well as their talents. Masque and Dagger participated in performances throughout the year at Westwood as well as holding workshops at several of the junior highs in the area. They were also very busy in speech tournaments, Luthern Hospital drills, and being ushers for the school plays.

In this 30 member club, 2 received $100 scholarships. Sponsor for the club was Jay Dean Jones. President was Kelly Rhodes, Vice President was Carol Dixon, and Secretary was Keri Christensen.

Language Clubs Intrigue Students With Foreign Tongues And Foreign Customs

The French, German, and Spanish Clubs had many learning experiences this year. They made new friends, put on fundraisers, and had many activities.

The French Club was led by Mr. Ferguson, who has never been a part of the French club before. He did a super job along with the help of students Alexis Bell (Pres.), Ruth Randell (V-P), Amy Halverson (Sec.), and Kim Gray (Tres.).

The German Club was led by Mrs. Bailey with Tony Medina (Pres.), Daryl Neely (V-P), Tess Taylor (Sec.), and Kris Barbieri (Tres.). The Club did many exciting activities during the year including: going to German restraurants and del's, and participating in the Oktoberfest. They sold pretzels for their fundraisers.

The Spanish Club was led by Mr. Richardson with Brian Morgan (Pres.), Melanie Hutchenson (V-P), Michelle Rodriguez (Sec.), and Lisa Olson (Tres.). The Club sold 2-year pocket calendars to raise moeny. They also went to Mexico and enjoyed learning about the different cultures and food. They made many new friends during there stay in Mexico. They participated in Foreign language week with a big banquet. They also went to the Foreign Fair.

F.F.A. Prepares For Future

Future Farmers of America, better known as F.F.A., had a very successful year. They sponsored many activities, such as the wood cut, Christmas Party, and F.F.A. banquet.

The activities that F.F.A. participated in were not only for learning, but also to promote friendship, trust, and respect for one another. These feelings will go with them all their lives. It is the one thing no one will ever be able to take away from them.

The wood cut, which occured on October first and second worked out extremely well. It was much work for the members but it was fun. This provided an experience that will never be forgotten.

Another major event for the members of F.F.A. was the Christmas party on December fourth. This party provided a chance for friends to get together and join in the festive season. The Christmas party was followed by the field trip to Mesa Community College on Feburary fifth. This excursion proved to be very rewarding.

The F.F.A. has had both a rewarding and exciting year. This has been a year no one in Future Farmers of America will soon forget.

Clubs Are Progressing

With the arrival of the new computer system, Westwood's Computer Club had to adapt to meet the challenge of the new machines. Originally intended to allow the students with no computer experience to use the machines, this year the club was structured for students already taking computer classes due to the problems created when experienced and non-experienced users work with the machines at the same time.

Renewed interest in the area of public speaking by Westwood's students breathed new life into this years Speech and Debate Club. With a much larger membership than last year, the club provided stiff competition for its various rivals in the Forsenics League of Arizona. The majority of Speech and Debate's time was spent preparing for eight major tournaments in which it competed. The clubs sponsor, Mrs. Stehr, contributed a great deal of time and effort to help the members prepare for their events. Students spent quite a bit of time themselves not only in practice sessions with Mrs. Stehr, but also in the research and preparation of tournament material.

War Chant Informs; Staff Meets Deadlines

War Chant- this name represents not only a class, but a group of students who work diligently at providing fellow warriors with an informative and entertaining school newspaper. Under the leadership of Mr. John Donovan, the War Chant staff just completed another successful year.

Much more work goes into the makings of the publication than many people may think. Christine Ziobrowski and Lorelei Nordstrom served as co-editors during the 1982-83 school year. They designed the layouts and it was their responsibility to see that the stories were ready for publication. After the papers are printed, they are distributed to the student body.

War Chant is published thirteen times a year. The staff members meet during fifth hour to see that work is completed.

The staff also participated in writing the sports newsletter along with the yearbook staff. This was the first year for this publication co-edited by Connie Van Grouw and Linda Mills.

Breaking the montony is a definite must in such a stressful class. Bi-weekly luncheons, Christmas gift exchanges, and volleyball tournaments are just a few of the activities.

Indian Club Has Unity; Ebony Club Proves Fun; Ultimate Club Soars!

"Working hand in hand" was the statement that Mrs. Eleanor Ucci had to say about the Indian Club. No statement could be more true about this club, for that is exactly what they did.

Projects were big in the lives of the Indian Club members. Besides holding their regular club meetings, they also cooked up the fry bread to sell at the exciting home football games.

Working to promote togetherness among the students of Westwood were members of the Ebony Club. Besides honoring various national black leaders on the P.A. system the students promoted meaningful understanding about some of the Negro historical figures in out nations history.

Victory was the word that the Ultimate Club members were saying as they walked away this season with a perfect record, thus winning the city championship.

Ultimate, a game similiar to football has become very popular this year. Along with having to be able to throw the frisbee, running is also very important. The teams perfect frisbee abilities gave their opponents no chance to victory.

Students Train For Life In The Business World

Many Students this year were involved in work-study programs. Home Economics Related Occupations or better known as HERO is one of these clubs. Those involved in this program explored such careers as: child care, home furnishing, food services, personal services, and care for the elderly or injured. This club, led by Vera Smith, was again this year full of high-spirited Westwood students.

Another work-study program offered at Westwood was Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA). It was again led by Larry Judd. Many students who were interested in the fields of trade, industry, technical work, or health discovered many new things through this club.

Both clubs involved on the job training for the participants. Many Seniors attended classes for a half day and then went to work in the field of their choice. Each coordinator helped them locate a job if they had not already found one. These students have been given the opportunity to experience a real-life job situation, the responsibility it invovles, and actually learn first-hand what it may be like when they pursue their own career after graduation.

C.O.E. Proves To Be A Great Organization

Cooperative Office Education, better known as C.O.E. Had busy schedule this year. This schedule included many fun raisers, community services, and various conferences.

One of the conferences C.O.E. went to was the Arizon Vocational Officers Leadership and Training Workshop. Th conference was designed to develop a feeling of self conf dence, friendship, and training that will prepare a student fo the business world.

The fund raisers were an over all success. An example wa the sale of the "I Love W.W." spirit buttons. Another was th Santa's at Christmas. Much of the funds raised went toward a scholarship and the Employers Appreciation Banquet. Thi banquet was to honor the employers and other people wh helped C.O.E. during the course of the year.

C.O.E. has also contributed to many community services thi year. These services were provided monthly around Mes and the Valley. For instance, they visited a nursing home fo the elderly. At Christmas and Thanksgiving they sponsered family, and provided a dinner for them.

C.O.E. has had a year full of trials, joys, and successes, a yea to be proud of.

Club Shows Enthusiasm DECA Members Involved

Year after year, members of DECA are seen walking through the halls of Westwood trying to sell anything from M&M's to carnations for Valentines Day. So, what made this year different? The 1982-83 school year flourished with an outstanding number of enthusiastic students who were willing to go the extra mile to prove that their club was one of the best at Westwood. To do this the club sponsored a variety of activities. These functions ranged from learning skills in club leadership to community involvement.

One of the main activities engaged in by DECA was a fund raiser for the well-known Muscular Dystrophy Association. The club also sponsored a dance that was very successful. Another of the major activities was a slave auction. This particular function was greatly appreciated by the slave's owners. The advisor, Mr. McLaughlin, also took the students on a hayride. This experience was very enlightening for all who were involved. These are just a few examples of DECA's involvement in various affairs. The club participated in many other valuable productions too numerous to mention.

DECA represented Westwood in conferences at the state and national levels. The competitions held at the conferences were judged according to how well each student performed in his particular event.

FBLA Strives Onward; JAG Enhances Ability

Jobs for Arizona Graduates is an organization to help senior students plan a career for the future. The club's purpose is to help seniors define and plan the jobs that they want. How to be interviewed, how to keep a good attitude, and how to set goals for the future, were just a couple of skills that the students of JAG learned this year.

The club attended the annual state conference in Phoenix, plus they hosted a number of guest speakers at Westwood. The success of this club was boosted by the advisor, Miss Menchach.

The Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) is another club that plans ahead for the future. The club was open to any student that had taken any kind of business, free enterprise, or government class.

Miss Helen Ong, the club advisor, did an excellent job preparing the kids for their major competition against the rest of the Arizona High Schools. They attended a leadership training seminar at ASU, studied beginning and advanced typing, beginning and advanced shorthand, speech and job interviewing as well as dozens of other subjects for the state competition.

ROTC Builds Discipline

The mission of the Air Force Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps is "to acquaint secondary school students with the aerospace age, to develop informed students, strengthen character, promote understanding of the citizen solider in a Democratic society and motivate students for careers in the Air Force." This year was a smashing success.

Westwood's R.O.T.C. members took part in many activities to fulfill their mission. The most visible to students was the presentation of the colors at the football and basketball games this year by the honor guard and drill team. The Color Guard also performed for Congressman John McCain.

Westwood's squadron also participated in several field trips to nearby air force bases, competed in a track and field meet and conducted a military ball.

R.O.T.C. is the only organization on campus in which a fellow student is in command of his peers. The many achievements which this group has attained this year show the undying dedication of this leader.

THE DISTRICT FOCUSED THEIR ATTENTION THIS PAST YEAR ON THE "NEW LOOK" FOR WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL. WESTWOOD IS THE OLDEST HIGH SCHOOL IN THE MESA DISTRICT, AND WITH THE BUILDING OF THE NEW SCHOOLS, THE MONEY, TIME AND MAN POWER WERE CHANNELED IN THAT DIRECTION. THE SUPERINTENDENCY AND BOARD OF EDUCATION EARMARKED THIS YEAR FOR IMPROVEMENTS FOR WESTWOOD. THE ANNEX WAS COMPLETELY REMODELED, MAKING IT ONE OF THE FINEST AND CERTAINLY MOST FUNCTIONAL FACILITY OF ITS KIND IN THE VALLEY. ALL OF THE OUTSIDE TRIM OF THE ENTIRE PLANT WAS PAINTED ... THE FIRST TIME IN TWENTY YEARS. ALL OF THE ROOFS ON OUR SCHOOL WERE COVERED WITH THE WHITE "FOAM", THE AUDITORIUM IS NOW COMPLETELY REFURBISHED WITH THE COMPLETION OF THE NEW SOUND SYSTEM.

DONNA GREEN SERVED AS PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION THIS PAST YEAR. THE SUPERINTENDENCY HAS ALSO PUT IN MANY HOURS TO IMPROVE THE EDUCATIONAL QUALITY OF OUR SCHOOL, AND ALL SCHOOLS IN THE MESA DISTRICT.

Administration Leads Westwood To Successful Year.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE GRADUATES OF 1983 FOR HAVING REACHED THE GOAL FOR WHICH YOU HAVE BEEN STRIVING FOR THE PAST THREE YEARS. I HOPE THAT AS YOU LEAVE WESTWOOD HIGH SCHOOL IT WILL BE WITH A FEELING OF PRIDE IN THE SCHOOL, FOND MEMORIES OF THE MANY PLEASANT EXPERIENCES THAT YOU HAVE HAD HERE AND OF THE MANY FRIENDSHIPS YOU HAVE MADE.

YOUR TEACHERS AND I APPRECIATE YOUR MANY CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE MORALE AND SUCCESS OF THE SCHOOL: YOUR WILLINGNESS TO WORK WITH ALL SEGMENTS OF THE SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY: AND THE LEADERSHIP WHICH YOU DISPLAYED THROUGHOUT THE SCHOOL YEAR. IT WILL BE DIFFICULT FOR US TO FORGET THE SCHOLASTIC SUCCESS OF THE CLASS, AS WELL AS THE OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTIONS WHICH YOUR MEMBERS HAVE MADE TO ATHLETICS AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES.

WE SINCERELY HOPE THAT WE HAVE PREPARED YOU ADEQUATELY SO THAT YOU ARE ABLE TO FACE THE CHALLENGE OF FURTHERING YOUR EDUCATION AND TAKING YOUR PLACE IN OUR SOCIETY. GOOD LUCK AND BEST WISHES TO EACH OF YOU.

Counselors Give Info, Students Profit

The counselors' referral agency was the place for students to get information about a career after graduating.

Mr. Frontone, the department head, and other counselors were always available to help anyone who was interested in attending college and needed more information about scholarships, credits for graduating, or just some good, friendly advice.

This year the counselors put on two worthwhile programs in October. Alanon, a program to help students who have a drinking problem, and "Get high on yourself", a program that hopefully illustrated to students that drugs and drinking are not a way to have fun, but instead, good music, good friends, and being in the right environment can be great fun.

Westwood's Mrs. Ucci was much more than just a school nurse. Aside from taking temperatures and giving aspirin, she was very involved with students and school activities.

Mrs. Ucci was the sponsor for the Health Careers Club, where she and many students visited hospitals such as St. Joseph's Hospital in Phoenix and Mesa Lutheran Hospital. Aside from sponsoring the health club, she was also the sponsor for the Native American Indian club where she encouraged Indian students to learn more about their culture, and to put into practice what they had learned.

Home Ec. And Art Staff Provide A Productive Year

Once again, the staff in the Industrial Arts, Home Economics, and Arts department have put forth a lot of time and effort and have met their usual high standards of excellence in teaching the students at Westwood various skills.

In the Industrial Arts department there were choices of electricity, wood working, cabinet making, and drafting. Students put forth their talent in making projects such as shelves, television stands, can openers, tool boxes, book cases, and gun racks.

In Home Economics, students learned to do decorative cooking, sewing, stitchery, and single survival, plus much much more. Many of the skills that students were taught while attending Westwood, will greatly be appreciated later on in life.

All the classes that are offered in the Arts department required dedication. Students expressed their talent in classes such as drawing, photography, ceramics, jewelry, painting, and crafts.

Westwood has many classes to offer students who are artistically inclined. Along with these classes comes a great staff of dedicated workers.

Performing Arts And Clubs Add Life To Westwood

The special services in the library were very much appreciated. This year a few new librarians have joined the crew. They helped the students check out books, put up library displays, and supplied the needed assignments.

The performing arts here at Westwood have proven to be very popular. This department has provided both the school and the public with a variety of productions.

The bands, orchestras, and choirs have represented Westwood highly. They have attended competitions and festivals throughout the United States, in which they have placed in the top.

Another active group was the audio visual department. Frank Larson and Mary Lou Allred taught the students how to repair and view educational films.

The hard working staff of the Art department, were involved in teaching the skills that can be used by the students in later life.

The art department works with students interested in pottery, photography, jewelry, and drawing.

Social Studies Vital; Needed For Graduation

If one is planning to graduate from Westwood, he is destined to take many required subjects, of which the most feared are in the area of social studies. All students face the unenviable task of taking American Government, Free Enterprise, American History and Arizona History. Each of these subjects have gained the reputation of being frightening to the majority of the student body with Free Enterprise and American Government heading the list.

On the other hand, to the few students on campus who happen to be history buffs and to those who are interested in foreign language, the annual trip to Europe led by Mr. Jerry Ferguson, proves to be very popular among the students. The students are able to see the cities of Rome, London, Pompei, Munich and Paris.

The Close Up program was again a valuable addition to the social studies department in that it allowed many students to experience politics as they are acted out every day in Washington D.C.

Mr. Murphy's advanced placement classes and Mrs. Christensen's AA government groups met the needs of the academically challenged students. These courses were designed to give students an extra edge for the type of study which is experienced in college.

All in all when asked about the social studies department Mr. Wells stated, "Our students have scored highly on the ACT in the area of social studies, and I'm proud of them."

Math And Science Tough Effort Worth The While

If two plus two adds up to four, then what does math plus science equal? For most students at Westwood this is the equation for much agony. Math has always been a weak area of study for high school students. Science has not really thrilled very many either.

This year's math and science departments have not made any earthshaking changes from years past, and maybe it has been for the better. Students at Westwood, it seems, have always taken an interest in these areas of study, and why mess with success? Of the students that choose to take these courses as electives, the majority of them will continue on to higher education. Since most major universities require these subjects this seems only logical.

One may ask, "Why on earth would someone want to take calculus or chemistry?" The answer is quite simple, they really are not that bad. In fact most of those who take chemistry at least finish with a positive attitude because of the variety of what is learned. Math, on the other hand, is usually taken just to get it put on the students high school transcript. Many colleges screen transcripts before allowing admission to classes. Don't be fooled. In the long run, these courses will be beneficial.

Physical Education Proves To Be Beneficial

For those girls not interested in the sports teams offered at Westwood there is a class just to keep them in shape. This is girl's physical education.

Every semester four or five activities are offered to the girls. They individually choose which activity they would like to participate in. Seniors have top priority in the choice, juniors next and sophomore last.

There are three categories in which these activities are found. They are individual activities, dual sports, and team sports. A few of these sports include jogging, self defense, aroebic fitness, bowling, tennis, volleyball, racquetball, basketball and frisbee.

All these events help the girls to improve in stamina and coordination.

The main goal of the boy's physical education was to implement a carry over sports program. These are sports that the boys will be able to use when they are older. Weight training, racquetball, golf, and tennis are all examples of these carry over sports.

Boy's physical education had 12 weight training classes. This seems to be the most popular activity. Westwood has gained two new coaches for the p.e. activities. They are Coach McConnel and Coach Hilliker and they have added much to the program.

Ag Gains Popularity; Business Is Booming

A long way from the heart of Westwood High School sits a lonely building known as the "Ag" and auto center of Westwood High. Many students made the long trek across the practice field, sometimes two and three times daily.

In the Auto Mechanics Department, the students learned to overhaul engines. They did this work on actual cars, not models, with their own hands. The Students also did body work and paint jobs.

The Agriculture Department offered classes dealing with everything from horticulture to conservation. Much of the class work was done on the land laboratory, where students raised their own livestock and cultivated their own crops. Many of these were judged in contests throughout the year.

Students had to prepare with time and tough training to begin and end this year in the Business program. Their main objective was to incorporate computers into classroom instruction. The program received four new computers for the year and were able to line up workshops to receive additional training in the computer area. Business classes were led by Mrs. Vancore and Mr. Foster.

Ladies Cook Lunch; Custodians Clean Campus

Westwood students were given the opportunity to discover who they were and what they wanted for their future while they enjoyed a clean, safe campus.

Many programs are offered at Westwood to help students figure out what they want from life. Air Force Junior ROTC helped with training those who were interested in a career of protecting our country. Jobs for Arizona Graduates was set up to help Seniors locate a job to be prepared for the outside world after graduation. The Career Center opened its door to anyone looking for the opportunity to work.

Many services have been rendered this past year. The Journalism Class Produced 13 editions of the school newspaper along with this year's yearbook. Ms. Trezise, our school psychologist, offered counseling to anyone desiring help of this nature. The bookstore provided the convenience of saving those never-ending trips to the drugstore for a new pencil or tablet. The cafeteria ran smoothly even with all the difficulties the one lunch presented. All the hard work and effort put in by the janitors could be appreciated as they diligently worked to keep our campus looking clean. And of course, our security guards can't be forgotten for guarding and protecting our Warrior Homeland.

Proper Grammar Vital; Foreign Language Helps

Pac Man, cable television, six theater movie houses — distractions galore! All vie for students' time. Yet, among all these distractions, the need for education is still paramount. Communication in our complex society is not only necessary, but needed for survival. No matter what areas a student chooses to guide his future into, a solid background in English is always beneficial.

The English Department fills this need for students. Westwood offers a wide range of English classes from basic English to the college level AP English class. Students are required to pass three English courses including Principles of English I and II, Literary Explorations, and another literature course. Mythology, American literature, and world literature are among the choices. Elective English courses such as newspaper and yearbook are also offered.

Several foreign languages are offered to students at Westwood. Classes such as German, Spanish, and French can prove to be quite beneficial. Many colleges prefer a student to have taken some foreign language.

DECA has played a very meaningful part of my years at Westwood. It has helped me gain knowledge in the business world as well as in the understanding of human relations. I have achieved many goals with the help of DECA that will carry me through the rest of my life. There is no greater reward than having the feeling of self-accomplishment and I have experienced it in DECA the past two years.

For all people who are considering DECA, I strongly encourage it. You can meet new friends among your own DECA chapter and others in Arizona. Learning of the marketing world was another benefit of the organization. During the course of the year, I learned to understand how businesses are run and how they become successful. The knowledge that I acquired aided me in my job. I am sure it will help me in my future career. Competition is a major part of everyone's life, and DECA taught me how to handle winning and losing.

I would personally like to thank Mr. McLaughlin for all the time and patience he spent on me in DECA. Because of this excellent organization, I feel like I've become a better person.

Sincerely,

ANDY WEISS

In my opinion, there is no better way to become involved in school activities than through the newspaper. It's an excellent way to meet new friends and present a more healthy attitude towards school life.

The War Chant publishes thirteen papers a year and it is always a challenge to think of story ideas which are interesting to the student body. Then, the stories are assigned by the editors. For the 1982-3 school year, Lorelei Nordstrom and Christine Ziobrowski took on the tasks of co-editors. After ingeniously writing his story, each reporter must brainstorm for an original headline.

The day the War Chant is distributed, however, all of the diligence is paid off by a feeling of accomplishment. This is the reason I enjoy it so much. I was able to see the results of my work, whether they were complimentary or disgraceful..

There were so many extracurricular activities involved with being a member of the staff, that they made up for all of the rushed deadlines and last minute changes. Our ever so famous bi-monthly luncheons and Christmas and Senior Banquets never failed to present an enjoyable time for everyone. In the two-and-a-half years I have been a member of the Publications Staff, I have met more friends and kindled more relationships than any other time in my life.

The past three years at Westwood are ones that I never forget, especially my Senior Year. Many different people and activities have affected it and have helped to make it the best it could be. I think the part I will always remember is COE. The experiences I have gained will probably be the most beneficial for the rest of my life. I have been given the opportunity to experience a real life job situation, the responsibility it involves, and actually learn first-hand what it may be like when I pursue my own career after I graduate. Being a member of COE has not only helped me with my future, it has also helped me become more involved in the mainstream of Westwood's school life. Because COE stresses student involvement and they are very active as a top club on campus, I feel I have become more involved in school spirit and I realize even more the importance of it. Most of all, I think I will always remember the new friendships I have formed and all the help Ms. Vancore and Ms. Chellevold have so willingly given to me.

Of all the different clubs and activities I have participated in during my three years at Westwood, one of the most satisfying was my membership in the national Honor Society. From the excitement of having been selected in my junior year, to involvement in the various activities we have had as a club, there was always something interesting happening.

This past year, I had the opportunity to plan all of the Honor Society's fund raisers. Putting on a dance, selling candy and sending out carnations on Valentine's Day were enjoyable learning experiences. These activities all required planning as well as leadership qualities, which the National Honor Society has helped me to develop.

No other club has members which show as much dedication and enthusiasm as the National Honor Society. I am very proud to have been one of these members and know my experiences with N.H.S. will elave a beneficial mark on my life.

Snakes, spiders, scorpions and tarantulas may have nothing to do with volleyball, but they have everything to do with an experience we will never forget.

We were on our way back from a volleyball trip to Yuma when the smell of burning rubber filled the bus. The driver swerved into a nearby rest area which happened to be an hour and a half away from Mesa, not to mention in the middle of the desert. There we sat for four and a half hours.

Despite the miserable circumstances of the Arizona desert, we soon overcame our dismal situation and found ways to occupy our sime. Some girls played hacky, some tried their hands at frisbee football and some slept upon the desert floor. This arrangement lasted fine until one of the girls noticed a sign which stated, "Beward of Poisonous Snakes and Insects." This announcement uprooted a mass migration of volleyball students from the delightful desert oasis to the cramped, smelly, miserable, injured bus. Here we remained until a much-welcomed bus from our own town of Mesa came to rescue us. The entire evening helped our team members grow much closer. We learned to appreciate each other more on as well as off the court.

We wish to thank Coach Demarest and Coach Cottle for their support and for the many hours they put into our team.

My time at Westwood has been a time of fun and activities. One of my activities has been the art club. The art club has been a very rewarding experience to me.

In the art club I have made many friends whom I will never forget, no matter where my destiny will lead me. The laughs and good times we shared, as well as how we helped one another through the bad times. I will cherish as one of my fondest memories of high school. We have painted murals, lettered signs and painted window fronts. Even though the work was difficult and sometimes very trying, we never gave up because we knew we could count on one another to keep each other going.

Through the mistakes we made we learned and grew as individuals. We also learned to depend on one another and to trust each other.

The art club has taught us values and skills that we can use after we leave Westwood. It has also taught us how to work with one another.

The art club has also made leaving high school and going into a new way of life a little less scary, because I'll always have the friends I made.

Home Ec. Can Be Creative

Darlene Miles artistically decorates a cake for Home Ec, a popular course; it offers a variety of skills like preparing food, sewing and decorating.

Here I am at Westwood, an exchange student from Sweden. I really liked Westwood and I felt like I had been a Warrior my whole life. My teachers were really nice to me. When I didn't understand something, they explained it to me and I felt very welcome. The students at Westwood were very nice too, especially Lorelei Nordstrom whose family I was staying with during my schoolyear. It is a really nice family that opened their home for me and I felt well accepted there. A lot of the students came up to me and asked about Sweden and were interested in what I thought about the United States and Arizona.

In the fall, I was a member of the girls golf team. That was a great experience for me. I really enjoyed going out on the golf-course for a match fighting as a Warrior for Westwood. My coach, Miss Christensen, was a person I really appreciated knowing. She was super nice to me. Another thing I attended at school was the German Club, where I learned more about the activities at school. I had fun as a member of the German Club.

Many of my Friday nights I spent at the football games, which were a great excitement. I enjoyed watching the games. The atmosphere at the games was terrific. The Warrior Band is the best school band I have ever heard. I liked watching them walking onto the field while playing out their music loudly. Then the audience clapped their hands and stomped their feet. It was fantastic. I wish that all my friends in Sweden could have the same chance I had to come to the United States as an exchange student and go to school at Westwood.

I've enjoyed being a percussionist here at Westwood for three years. I was in the Apache Band for one year and the Warrior and Marching Bands for two years. Band was an exciting learning experience for me. There's more going on there other than playing an instrument. During band I learned music reading skills, improved my musical talent, coordination and most important of all, I learned to be on time and to listen. This may seem strange, but listening is a very important skill and one of the hardest to learn. Besides the learning, band was a very enjoyable experience.

Marching Band had to be the most fun of all. During Marching Band we played at all the Varsity football games and competed against other bands at festivals. What really made Marching Band an exciting experience was the fact that everyone in the band was CRAZY! Many things have happened to me during my three years of band. These range from getting thrown-up on through a bus window, to getting caught outside of my hotel room in the middle of the night. The most embarrassing thing that happened to me was during the Westwood-Mesa High football game. We were marching in front of the Mesa High stands and my pants fell down to my knees. It was a real chore trying to get them up, hold my drum, and march at the same time. Besides all the embarrassments, I made some true friendships with other band members. Upon ending this, I'd like to say — thanks, Mr. Cunningham, and all of the wild band members for three great years and some memories that will stick with me forever.

McTaggart Leads Staff MacDonald, Hebel To Aid

If you think Yearbook is just another class, you had better think again! Room 007, tucked away in the far reaches of hall three, is a self contained world where anything is possible. The first annual and traditional Chieftain-Warchant volleyball challenge took place this year and the ceilings were mysteriously redecorated. Santa Claus has been known to visit this place where unicorns, Extra Terrestrials and a thousand eyes inhabit the walls. This world is filled with grease pencils, pizza parties, and an array of characters, all with a personality of their own. There are Rah-Rahs, jocks, elfs, and preachers. There are Brits and Texans, Vals and Preps, and the World Reknowned White Knight. All of these people with their quirks and idiosyncrasies, are part of the machinery which produces one of Westwood's finest publications, the Chieftain yearbook. So while you are reading this, think of the tucked away place with its crazy inhabitants, we will probably have already left for lunch.

The material between these covers is not just photographs and a few words. This book is filled with memories . . . a rememberance of all the friends we have met, and good times we have had. I hope everyone will cherish these memories as much as I do.

I have gained many new friends through publications and have learned a great deal more about everyone close to me, and about myself. Everyone surrounding me has changed, even if it is minutely. There have been trying moments, but change is always hard. I wish that as the students of Westwood look through these pages they will see how they are, and how they have been, and know that they are better off for experiencing all the trials and tribulations that the 1982-83 school year has produced.

It seems only yesterday that I was struggling through a ladder diagram trying to decide how to arrange this annual. Now the year is finished and as I look through this yearbook I realize that one world is not closing, but another even broader world is beginning to open.

There are so many people to thank for helping me with this book and for all the toleration they have given me. Much thanks goes to my staff for making all this possible, Mr. Messali for all the work he did so quietly, Mr. Lewis for letting me "checkup" on 4th hour, to the Warchant staff for writing the copy, and last, to Mr. Donovan for all the ulcers I must have given him, and for understanding the way I look at things.

My goal this year was to capture a little bit of everything, and this my staff has done, and done well. I hope that as you look through this book, you will see a little part of yourself reflected. Take care, your life is just beginning . . .

Robert,
It has been a fun, but long semester. I am glad its finally over. I wish you alot of luck in all that you do because you deserve it. You're a really nice guy.
Take Care,

Hey Bobert~

Well, it's that time of year again, but we must at last say goodby to Westwood High School, and I think I'm gonna come over to your house every night straight for three weeks and I'm gonna cry my eyes out, singing the Westwood Alma Mata (if I only knew how it went)! But now that we're out of school, we have absolutely nothing to do~'cept mebbe to go out and party-hardy until dawn, race down the highway at 90 miles an hour in the dead of night jammin' to the tunes, go out and see all the rad movies coming out, chase wild women and fondle shameless hussies (like Lisa), get slick and wet at the river baking in the sun with a cool one in our hand (probably a root beer) and the cool breeze blowing through our macho hair (the wind blows Free), go to big surf, go carto, Fiesta Mall, movies, night clubs, social activities and etc. to "scope" on the women, I mean, what will we ever do? We could go camping. Fishing. Or both.

Just think, there won't be any more classes, no more monotonous bells, no more school lunches, no more homework (as if we ever did any), no more dances, no more assemblies or pep rallies, no more basketball, football, or Ruth Ann Farnsworth! All this and more is gone forever. As I write this today, in first hour Free Enterprise, we have just finished our final and we will never see this class again. In just a few more hours we [redacted] will never see this place again. We've got a lot of great memories which to cherish from this place, and cherish them I shall. We've been together a short two years and I can only wish we had longer (Hey, let's flunk and go on the 5-year plan!!). Do you remember when you and me and Brad the Anus would get off the bus from Mesa Central in 10th grade and beat up on this runt called Lenny Rechichar. How times have changed! And for the better.

You and me have got a lot of good times to look forward to and I really look foward to them. I hope you don't blackmail me with this when I'm rich and famous! Well, anyway~be good, or bad (whichever feels better), have fun at whatever you do, just be careful who you do it with and how many times you do it! Good luck at all you strive for~and don't forget the roots that sprang us forth, totally fer-shur, you know?!

Hello Robert,

I really haven't known you long but you have a Blade Bar art and your good at it keep on working.

Kyra

Robert,

Hey! You appear to be reasonably destructive and equally strange (my kinda' person). So have a good summer and enjoy life, but heed my advice and don't injure small children, unless of course, they sneeze in your general direction.

Your friend (and mine),

Jim O'Donnell
